

Harlem Shake

Hello again everyone I'm your host Ashley Hafer for BE News.

As we all know the Harlem Shake has taken over the world...and even CU. If you don't know what I'm talking about then you've probably been living under a rock...awkward. Anyway this dance craze has blown up and here at CU we love it so much it's been done 14 different times. Let's recap some of the best.

Our CU Buffs Basketball team likes to call this the Mill Shake. What was just a normal basketball practice suddenly turned into a party with the whole gang...including Chip and Coach Boyle. Roll Tad!

C-Unit took it a step further in the game against Arizona. Chip started off as the lone dancer leading the entire crowd into the shake...things got pretty wild. It probably helped that we won the game too. And yes...that is a teletubby you see.

Our favorite here at BE News has to be the Harlem shake that took place in the center of Farrand Field. The great and powerful "O" showcases his perfectly timed tumbling...the beat drops...and then we see hundreds of people shaking what their momma gave them. From couch surfing to grown men in tiny outfits...we have to give this one 5 stars. You go glen coco!

If you're feeling a little jealous you weren't here for these Harlem shakes...don't worry because Colorado Concerts is hosting one this Saturday...March second at Red Rocks. Show up in your craziest costumes at eleven 45 and prepare to make history.
